Reaches Korea

Pvt. Jesse W. Wilson, 20, whose wife, Mary, and parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Wilson, live in Torrance, recently arrived in Korea for duty with X Corps. The corps, one of three in Korea, coordinates the intensive post-truce training and reconditioning of UN units under its control.

Grisby Given Sgt. Promotion

Waymon A. Grisby, 25, whose wife, June, lives at 750 West Twentieth street San Pedro, recently was promoted to sergeant while serving with the second Infantry Division in Korea. The "Indianhead" division, which captured Heartbreak Ridge and Old Baldy, is now undergoing intensive post-truce training.

A squad leader with the Twenty-third Infantry Regiment's Company H, Sergeant Grisby joined the second in Korea last May.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Grisby, 18528 Regina avenue, Torrance.

Mr. and Mrs. William Holland, 23237 Anchor Ave., Wilmington, announce the birth of a son, born on March 4, at Torrance Memorial hospital, weighed 7 pounds and 8 ounces.

JAMES SAVANT IN GERMANY WITH ARMY

Army Pvt. James J. Savant, 20, whose wife, Lois, lives at 15414 South Vermont avenue, Gardena, recently returned to Augsburg, Germany, with the Forty-third Division's 102nd Regiment after completing five weeks of winter training in northern Bavaria.

Using tank-infantry tactics and employing heavy weapons in two feet of snow, soldiers of the 102nd learned how to survive and handle their weapons effectively under extreme weather conditions.

A rifleman in Company F, Savant entered the Army last May and completed basic training at Fort Ord, California. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Savant, 2043 233rd street, Torrance.

Jack White Presents Platform

Jack White, of 4308 178th street, who ran in the last election for City Council, issued the following statement during the present City Council election campaign in which he is participating once more:

"Having been a resident of Torrance for several years and active in civic and church affairs, I feel I have recognized some of the problems which accompany the tremendous and rapid growth of the city."

"Some of the things which require a very definite plan for the future are: a continued balance between residential and industrial growth; increased fire and police protection; a very advanced plan for recreation and an ever alert mind to continued efficiency and economy in government."

"I sincerely advocate a better enforcement of the building code to assure the new residents of Torrance who are investing their savings and future here that they are receiving the protection they are entitled to."

"It is only through such assurance that we can hope to continue the prosperous growth which is indicative of a successful city."

"I trust the people of Torrance to indicate at the polls their support of such a program."
